SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS BIG RALLY

Nearly 400 Attend Session at Conference Memorial Brethren Church.

Nearly 400 were in attendance at the Sunday school rally at the Conference Memorial Brethren church Sunday. Rev. G. E. Ryer, pastor, was the principal speaker of the occasion. Arthur Bell of Fort Wayne and James Carman of South Bend rendered solos.

Rev. Mr. Ryer took as his text "And Daily in the Temple and in Every House They Ceased Not to Teach and Preach Jesus Christ."

He said in part: "The Sunday school is not only one of the greatest organizations, but it is engaged in the greatest work not only with its own members, but with the community at large."

"We are to teach the greatest things of God's creation. God created in His order the mineral, vegetable, and animal kingdoms, but man is the crowning of all His creations. Yet some people know more of the soil, corn, hogs, and cattle and pay more attention to them than they do to the boys and girls. Then when the boys and girls look better than the children, they wonder what is wrong with the children."

"We are not only to teach but to convert. The greatest being of God's creation is prone to go in the wrong direction. They are perverting the gifts God has given them. Their cleverness is harnessed to iniquity. They invest their talents in mischief. Fine gifts are prostituted to degrading services. Their splendid accomplishments are wasted in riotous living, perverting the heavenly instruments into the ministries of hell. It is the work of the Sunday school to turn all these things about and face them in God's way."

Conversion Not All.

"The Sunday school is not only to teach and convert but also to build up. To convert a soul is not the end. It is just the beginning. It is starting them in the right direction where they may travel to the highest goal. It is placing them where they may develop. We speak about being in the line of promotion. Conversion puts a man in line of promotion before God."

"There is no greater joy that can come to a human life than seeing the growth or development of the Christian life of our young people. There is no limit to the possibilities of the human mind and soul. The individual that is instrumental in the development of another life will share with it in the glories of its successes."

If a man can take the old-fashioned pink and bring forth the carnation, or the chrysanthemum from a common ordinary flower, or can do the wonderful work of a Burbank, we are compelled to ask what can we not do in the development and unfolding of a human life."

"It should be a serious question with us whether we are giving them the same care and thought that we are to the business affairs of life. When we plan for the betterment of the things about us, we should not forget the boys and girls of our communities. Yes, the men and women, for the Sunday school is no longer a school just for children."

A new vision has come to the Sunday school in the last few years and that is that it has a part in the spread of the gospel. The school is not only good for this community but for every other community. And they need it just as much as you need it."

Some communities will never hear the message unless somebody sends it to them. We should be the somebodies."

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas. "After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with a terrible female trouble and could hardly do any work. I was very nervous but kept putting it off until last summer when I got where I could not do any more work. I would have a chills every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told me that I should get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued it and told him to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commenced the treatment without delay. Adv.

GRACE M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS RALLY

Seventy Pupils Are Given Diplomas. Rev. Dougherty Shows Big Field for Children Ahead.

The annual Sunday school rally of the Grace M. E. church was held Sunday with a large number in attendance at the various services during the day. Seventy pupils in the Sunday school received diplomas Sunday which was also the annual promotion day. A program was rendered by the beginners, primary and junior departments of the school.

Rev. Frank K. Dougherty, pastor of the church, compared the Sunday school to a gold mine as regards its benefits to the church. He declared that just as there were many people who in '49 went to the far west in search of gold when greater wealth awaited them on the farm at home, so today that richest field for evangelic work, the growing child, was often neglected for other details of the work.

It has been determined by Sunday school workers that 80 per cent of the conversions made every year are brought about through the Sunday schools, said Rev. Dougherty. He commented on the fact that Sunday school work is a comparatively new endeavor in evangelic work and that the growing importance attached to it in recent years was attributable to the more general interest being taken in all phases of child welfare work at the present time. Rev. Dougherty emphasized the importance of further developing this prolific field of christian endeavor.

WOMAN TURNS SLEUTH: RECOVERS HER CHICKENS

Mrs. Joseph Jakab Takes Up Feathered Trail and Finds Birds Half Killed.

Mrs. Joseph Jakab, 723 Ford st., is a regular detective. Someone entered the chicken coop in the rear of her home Saturday night and made off with six chickens and one duck.

When Mrs. Jakab discovered the loss Sunday morning she reported the matter to the police. Then she started a little gum shoe work of her own. Scattered around the yard were many feathers, presumably from the stolen fowls.

With her nose to the trail, so to speak, Mrs. Jakab followed the feather trail. It led her directly to the back yard of the Joseph Paldie residence, 711 Ford st. There upon the ground reposed the bodies of four of the stolen chickens. The thief had tried to wring the necks of the birds but was unable to accomplish his purpose and left them there to die. Mrs. Jakab took them home and killed them herself.

Another chicken robbery, believed by the police to be the work of the same man, was reported by Steve Molnar, 502 W. Monroe st., who said that two white chickens had been stolen Saturday night.

URGES ITALIANS TO HELP WILSON

Prof. Grasso of New York Tells Voters a Vote for Hughes is Ungrateful.

Prof. Anthony J. Grasso of New York, organizer and speaker from the democratic national committee, and Antonio Ferrari of Chicago, the editor of the Italian newspaper L'idea, were the principal speakers at a meeting of the Italian voters of this city held yesterday afternoon at Maennorhall.

Both Mr. Grasso and Mr. Ferrari are touring the country in the interests of the democratic party. In opening his talk Mr. Grasso declared that no political campaign has ever surpassed this one in importance and gravity.

Big Problems Ahead.

"Problems both international and domestic," he said, "are now facing the American people and it demands all the earnestness and consideration of the people to elect an administration that can solve them, without imperiling the prestige, peace, welfare and prosperity that we are now enjoying and which is due to the present administration."

"The issue of the present campaign is not the tariff, nor is it the Mexican question, as the latter has been disposed of in a satisfactory manner. Neither is it the European situation, nor the Adamson bill, that did justice to the laborers' demands, and prevented the most disastrous paralysis of industry ever known in this country."

Must Beat Capitalists.

"The one great issue of this campaign for you Italian voters is the movement of the capitalists, the office seekers and the barbaric powers who have enlisted the republican influence to go back and help them in their savage drive against progress and civilization."

In concluding his talk Mr. Grasso said: "The Italian who casts his vote for Hughes is ungrateful, because Wilson and the administration have done all in their power to protect the working classes."

Mr. Ferrari in his address spoke in support of the Wilson policies, and he also attacked Roosevelt for his breaking away from the progressive party. A meeting similar to yesterday afternoon's, was held last evening at Elkhart.

The address by Dr. Bosenburg, which is given under the auspices of the men's brotherhood of the church will be open for men and women and will be delivered at 8:15 o'clock in the main auditorium of the church. Prior to this meeting the official board of the church will hold its regular monthly session.

RENTS ROOM THEN ROBS WHEN FAMILY IS OUT

Harry Mikesell Home Ransacked by Man Who is Wanted by Police in Several Cities.

While Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mikesell, 707 S. Michigan st., were away from their home Sunday afternoon for a short time, a roomer ransacked the house from cellar to garret and got away with several articles of clothing, two revolvers, and a small amount of money.

Sunday morning the man engaged a room of the Mikesells'. Police know who the burglar is from a description furnished by the Mikesells, who also recognized a picture of the man. "The thief is a clever and fast worker and is wanted in several cities."

WATCH WOBBLY WHEEL

It Belongs to Car Stolen From Valparaiso Man.

If you see a Buick going down the street with a wobbly wheel, right wheel notify the police for the car has been stolen. Valparaiso police have asked the local department to look for a light Buick six which was stolen from the streets of that city between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night. They were unable to give the license number of car, but the wobbly wheel should be enough to detect it.

Notre Dame News

At the first meeting of the Holy Cross Literary society held Sunday evening in the chapter rooms of the seminary, officers were elected and installed for the first part of the year as follows: Michael Mulcair of Limerick, Ireland, president; Frank Boland of Andover, Mass., vice president; Matthew Coyle of Janesville, Wis., secretary; Michael Mangan of Limerick, Ireland, treasurer; and James Cline of South Bend sergeant at arms. The executive committee is composed of the following: Thomas Richards, William Havey and James McDonald.

William McNamara spoke on the advantages to be derived from public speaking. Rev. Charles Marshall director of Gregorian music at the university announced his plans for the society's musical program for the ensuing year. Rev. William Lenartz spoke on the benefits to be derived from the society and the program was closed by Rev. Charles Doremus.

Last night the first meeting of the poetry club was held in the university parlor. Fr. Charles L. O'Donnell delivered the talk of the evening, explaining the purpose of the club. The club here will be similar to the American poets club which meets in New York city. From the large number of students attending the first meeting and the enthusiasm shown, it is possible that Notre Dame will have one of the largest poetry clubs in the country.

"Poetry is the voice of the people and your sky scrapers may crumble and fall but a little song may sing down through years," said Fr. O'Donnell in his talk to the embryo poets. In speaking of the value of poetry the speaker maintained that it was twofold, namely, to uplift and to please.

The meetings of the club will be held bi-monthly in the college parlors and at each meeting every member will be required to hand in a bit of poetry and this will be read and critized.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM 50,000 PLURALITY

Assert Wilson Will Carry Indiana by This Comfortable Margin.

News-Times Special Service:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—For the first time in the present campaign it is possible today to make public the result of actual estimates of the democratic plurality in the November elections. An official of the democratic state committee, whose name cannot be used but whose connection with the committee has been of long and honorable standing, consented to make public the average estimate of the plurality of the national democratic figures from each precinct of the state, gathered by democratic precinct committeemen and others from the 60 and 30-day polls and the registration, which occurred early this week.

The plurality by which Woodrow Wilson will defeat Charles Evans Hughes for presidency in the state of Indiana is placed at 50,000 votes by this democratic state committee official. As to the problem of making estimates on the pluralities that may come to the candidates on the state ticket, this democrat was much more reticent.

"We believe that the state ticket will fall but little, if any, behind the pluralities which we now are sure will be returned for the democratic national ticket," this man said. "But no accurate estimate can be made as to the pluralities of any particular state candidate. We do not believe, however, that the contents of the republican ticket to the effect that the state ticket in Indiana will run far behind the national ticket, is true."

Sentiment For Wilson.

Democratic workers from all parts of Indiana this week reported to the state headquarters here that the preponderance of sentiment in Indiana is towards keeping Woodrow Wilson in office. These reports were accentuated following the splendid demonstrations of loyalty given the president on his trip to this city last Thursday, when he came on a non-partisan mission, to address the crowds that gathered here for the celebration of centennial highway day. The three great speeches, delivered here that day, have borne fruit in a political way in the state, although the president made it very clear that he was distinguishing between politics and civic affairs in his trip to this city.

The president had been scheduled to make only the one speech at each of the places he appeared. At Tomlinson hall late in the evening the crowd was just as dense as it was at the Coliseum at the state fair grounds earlier in the day, or at Monument Place during the reviewing of the centennial grand parade.

The state and Indianapolis as well poured thousands into the downtown streets to greet the national executive and everywhere the spirit of the enthusiasm could not be misinterpreted by those, who closely watched proceedings.

SHOES GOING UP

Big Shortage in Leather is Given as Cause.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—Wholesale prices on men's and women's footwear have been advanced 50 to 75 cents a pair within the last 72 hours and certain lines have been withdrawn entirely from the market, owing to a big shortage in leather, according to an announcement here Sunday by officers of the Pennsylvania Shoe Travelers' association. The organization, which is composed of salesmen from various parts of the country, assigned to this territory the week ending at a meeting Saturday night. Many letters were read from firms manufacturing shoes, advising an advance of 25 to 60 cents a pair on upper stock and 8 to 10 a pound on sole leather. Two lines of shoes were advanced 75 cents a pair in two days. Capt. William A. Dana of New York, was elected president.
